Designer Natural Woven Woods

Since our announcement on March 13th, we have been working closely with our woven wood vendor to find a solution to improve the additional costs due to the current Chinese tariff fee. As a result of these discussions we will be passing down a 5% decrease in our tariff surcharge effective immediately. All orders placed starting today will reflect a 10% surcharge instead of the originally announced 15%. Additionally we will be reviewing all orders placed since March 13th and will automatically adjust the tariff cost to the new surcharge. Please note that for any pay in advance or prepay accounts we will be issuing a credit on you account to be used on any future order for any balance overpaid due to this change.

We thank you for patience and understanding during this uncertain time. We look forward to assisting you with your window covering needs.
